RELEASE AND AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE, INCLUDING CLAIMS FOR NEGLIGENCE

In consideration of my being provided equine activities and/or being allowed access on private land, I release and agree not to sue the following persons from all "claims" that I now have or subsequently acquire by participating in equine. The word "claims" has the meaning defined in 11 U.S.C. §101. The persons benefiting from this document are Bay State Equine Rescue, Inc., the owners of land on which I engage in equine activities, the persons in control of land on which I engage in equine activities, and the guests, invitees, business invitees, spouses, children, relatives, officers, directors, employees, independent contractors, and insiders of any of the foregoing.

It is recommended that all riders wear a helmet. I agree that I am riding at my own risk. I understand that trail riding can involve being in remote areas for extended periods of time, far from communication, transportation and medical facilities. That these areas may have natural hazards which management cannot anticipate, eliminate, modify, or control, and accidents can happen to anyone at any time.

WARNING

This release and agreement not to sue applies even to claims for present and future negligence.

WARNING

Under Massachusetts law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to section 2D of chapter 128 of the General Laws.

This release and agreement not to sue applies to future claims and future equine activities, unless and until it is revoked in writing. A revocation applies only to claims that accrue after the date of revocation from incidents that occur after the date of revocation.

I understand that I am not allowed to enter any land of any person unless this document is in full force and effect without alteration, amendment or change. No person has the authority to alter, amend, or change the provisions of this document insofar as they benefit or might benefit the released persons.

If a guardian of a person lacking legal capacity to contract signs this document, the signing person represents and warrants that he or she has the legal authority to bind the person on whose behalf he or she signs.

I agree to pay reasonable attorneys and expenses incurred by any and all persons benefiting from this document incurred in defending any action I bring against them in violation hereof.

This document is executed as the entire agreement of the undersigned as to the subject matter hereof under Massachusetts law as a sealed instrument.
